Letter from Iosco County RE: The Right to Keep and Bear Arms

PUBLIC COMMENT:

Mr. Friday – Questions about snowmobile trail crossing on Pierce Rd.

Questioned the transfer of Hurricane Capital Medical Marijuana facility permit from dispensary to grow operation.

Stone/ Mitchell To send a letter to Jon Satkowiak and Dean Wilson that their permit is being revoked since they haven't submitted the permit annual fee within the time frame of our ordinance.

Ayes – 4; Nays – 1. A new application and fee will be required to proceed.

Rumor is that BigFoot is having another bash this summer. Possibly Caregiver's event will be there but Brews to Canoes not expected to be there. No application to date.

Stone – to change the wording of the motion regarding Hurricane Capital's Medical Marijuana permit to EXPIRED, not revoked.

Stone/ Mitchell To send a letter to Jon Satkowiak and Dean Wilson that their permit is EXPIRED since they haven't submitted the permit annual fee within the time frame of our ordinance. Ayes – 4; No – 1.

AA people have been complaining about fire hall not being sanitized.

Wyrembelski wondered if the AA meetings should be suspended and sterilized the tables. He was going to meet with AA meeting chair to discuss them sanitizing after the meeting.

Township hall has been closed for next 2 weeks and then we'll discuss the situation.

BOARD COMMENT:

Meeting adjourned 8:10 pm
